At the Camrose Railway Station
6:30pm: Workshop for Accredited Judges

Saturday Speakers

9:00 – Dora Berry, Nature's Elements

Climate Resilient & Water-Wise Landscapes

Explore methods for designing and maintaining landscapes that address challenges like water availability, extreme weather, and wildfires. Learn about rain gardens, drought-tolerant plants, and FireSmart practices, among other strategies.

10:30 – Solveig Carroll

Biotic and Abiotic Factors of Soil Health

Exploring factors that contribute to plant and soil health, including biological aspects of plant and microbe interactions as well as the physical characteristics of soil.

11:30 – Nicola Irving, President

Round Hill Renaissance Agriculture Foundation

features the Agri-Culture Learning Centre Education Pavilion and manages a 3.5-acre community edible foodscape. This unique space offers agricultural education and engagement for students and community groups. Visitors of all ages can participate in hands-on learning about small-scale food production, deepening their understanding of food sources and cultural connections.

Silent Auction

Attendees are encouraged to bring one or two items for the silent auction. The proceeds from the silent auction support provincial horticultural programs and assists with conference expenses. Items can be purchased by cash, cheque or e-transfer.

Food and Gas in Camrose:

Camrose has many excellent restaurants and numerous gas stations. Please use Google to find your preference.

Local accommodation

(please make your own arrangements)

A complete list of hotels, along with prices and reservation information, can be found online. The closest hotel to the conference venue is the Camrose Resort Hotel; however, all hotels and motels are just minutes away.

Camrose & area attractions:

The Camrose Heritage Railway Station and Park, 4407 47 Ave, Camrose - explore an original 1911 CN Railway Depot. Wander through the displays in the bunkhouse, stop by the watchman's shed, view historic track maintenance vehicles in the maintenance of way building, and take a stroll through the picturesque gardens.
The Station will be open for our AHA reception!

Downtown Camrose

Our historic downtown features unique shops, cafes, and restaurants, and is home to the Bailey Theatre, one of Canada's oldest performing arts venues.

Round Hill Renaissance Agriculture Site

You'll hear about it during the conference, and it's close, so see it for yourself - the Agri-Culture Learning Centre Education Pavilion and 3.5-acre community edible foodscape.

Outdoor & Nature:

Mirror Lake Walking Trails, Miquelon Lake Provincial Park, Pelican Point Park, Dried Meat Lake, and the Camrose County Nature Conservation Centre. Excellent information for each can be found online.

Detention Brewing Co. Rosalind

A family-run brewery located in a former school, with nostalgic atmosphere.

Camrose County Greenhouses

Camrose is surrounded by many superb greenhouses, so no matter which direction you are coming from, you won't be far from one or more of them. Some notable options include Avonroy Gardens, Glenview Greenhouse, Maplewood Greenhouse, Ferry Point Greenhouse, Westway Gardens, and Wipf's Greenhouse & Market. You can find excellent information and directions for each greenhouse online.
